Re: Raymond Jones v. Best Buy Co., Inc., et al.
Case No. 12-cv-00095-PAM-FLN

Dear Judge Magnuson:

I write to advise the Court that the parties have reached a settlement in principal in the above-referenced case and to request a stay of all litigation deadlines. Counsel for the parties are currently working to finalize the settlement agreement and plan to file the papers for preliminary approval no later than July 15, 2013.

Counsel for the parties are confident that the Court will preliminarily approve the settlement when it is filed next month. Because of this settlement, the parties believe that good cause exists pursuant to Local Rule 16.3 to modify the current Scheduling Order. There is no point continuing to litigate a case that is settled and continuing to file and respond to motions under the current schedule would waste resources of the settlement class and the Court. Therefore, the parties respectfully request that the Court stay all of the deadlines in this matter and order that preliminary approval papers be filed on or before July 15, 2013 as the result of the settlement in principle.
